Serian
MASAI MARA

Serian (meaning "peaceful, calm or serene" in the maa language of the masai people) is the charismatic home of Alex Walker, filmmaker and guide in the Masai Mara.

"We both loved the bare foot, open air, soft smooth stone feel of it all. And the hippos burping and roaring during the night, coming up from the river, made us laugh ourselves to sleep."

Marcy & Taylor

- A charismatic bush camp of eight marquees with adjoining bush bathrooms, conveniently located in the greater Mara, the heart of Africa's best game viewing area.
- The flexibility to decide upon your own daily programme and a cheerful and attentive staff dedicated to helping you make the most of your experience.
- A comfortable chilled atmosphere in which to unwind and absorb pure Kenyan hospitality: in a word "Kenyality"

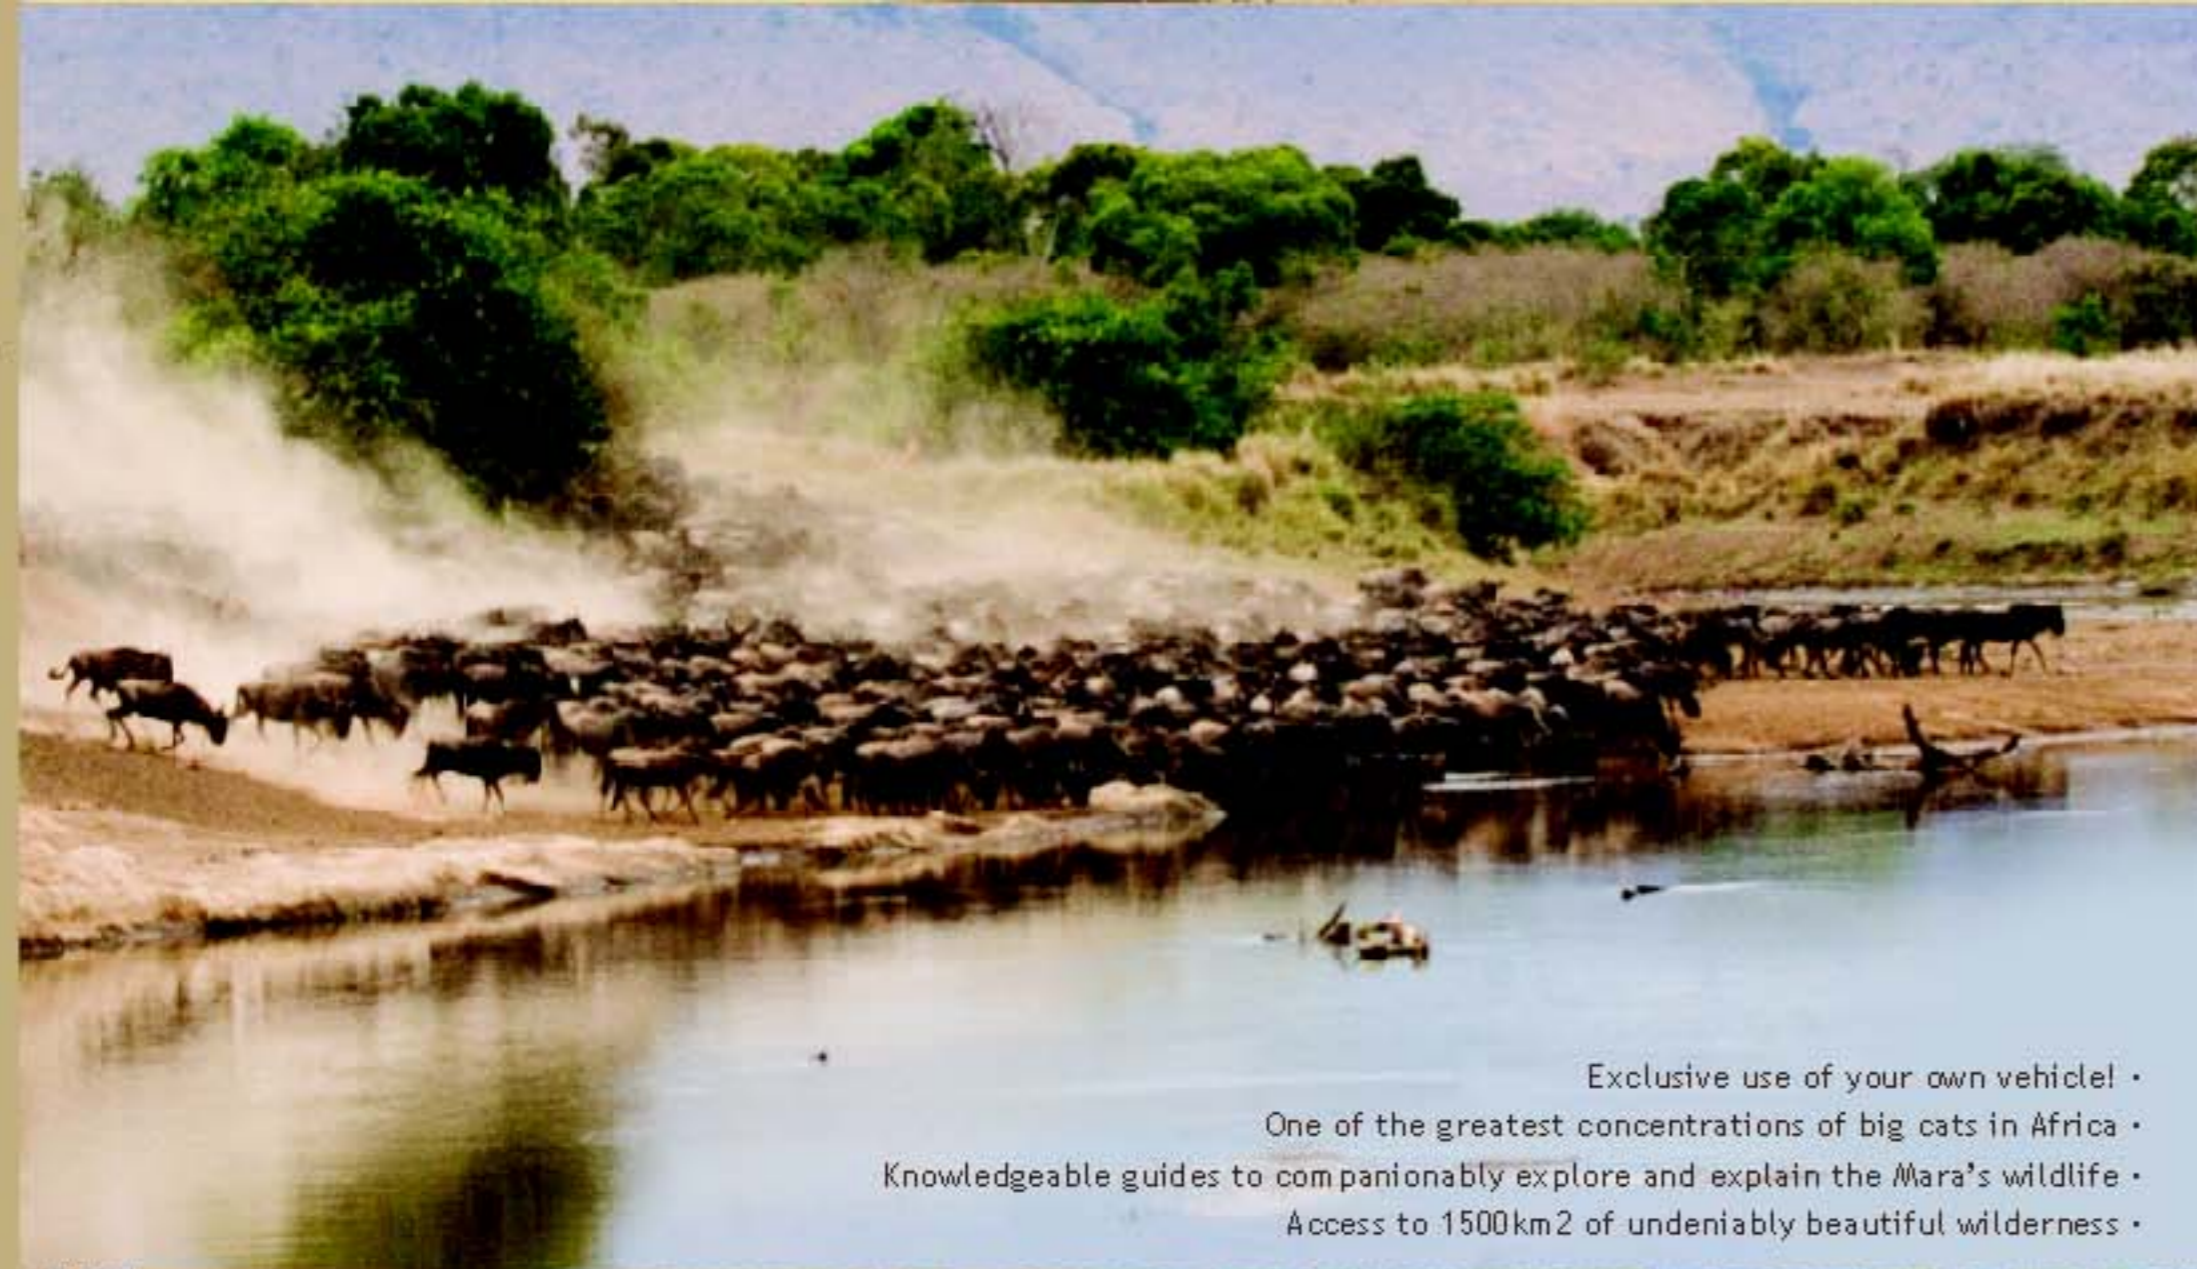

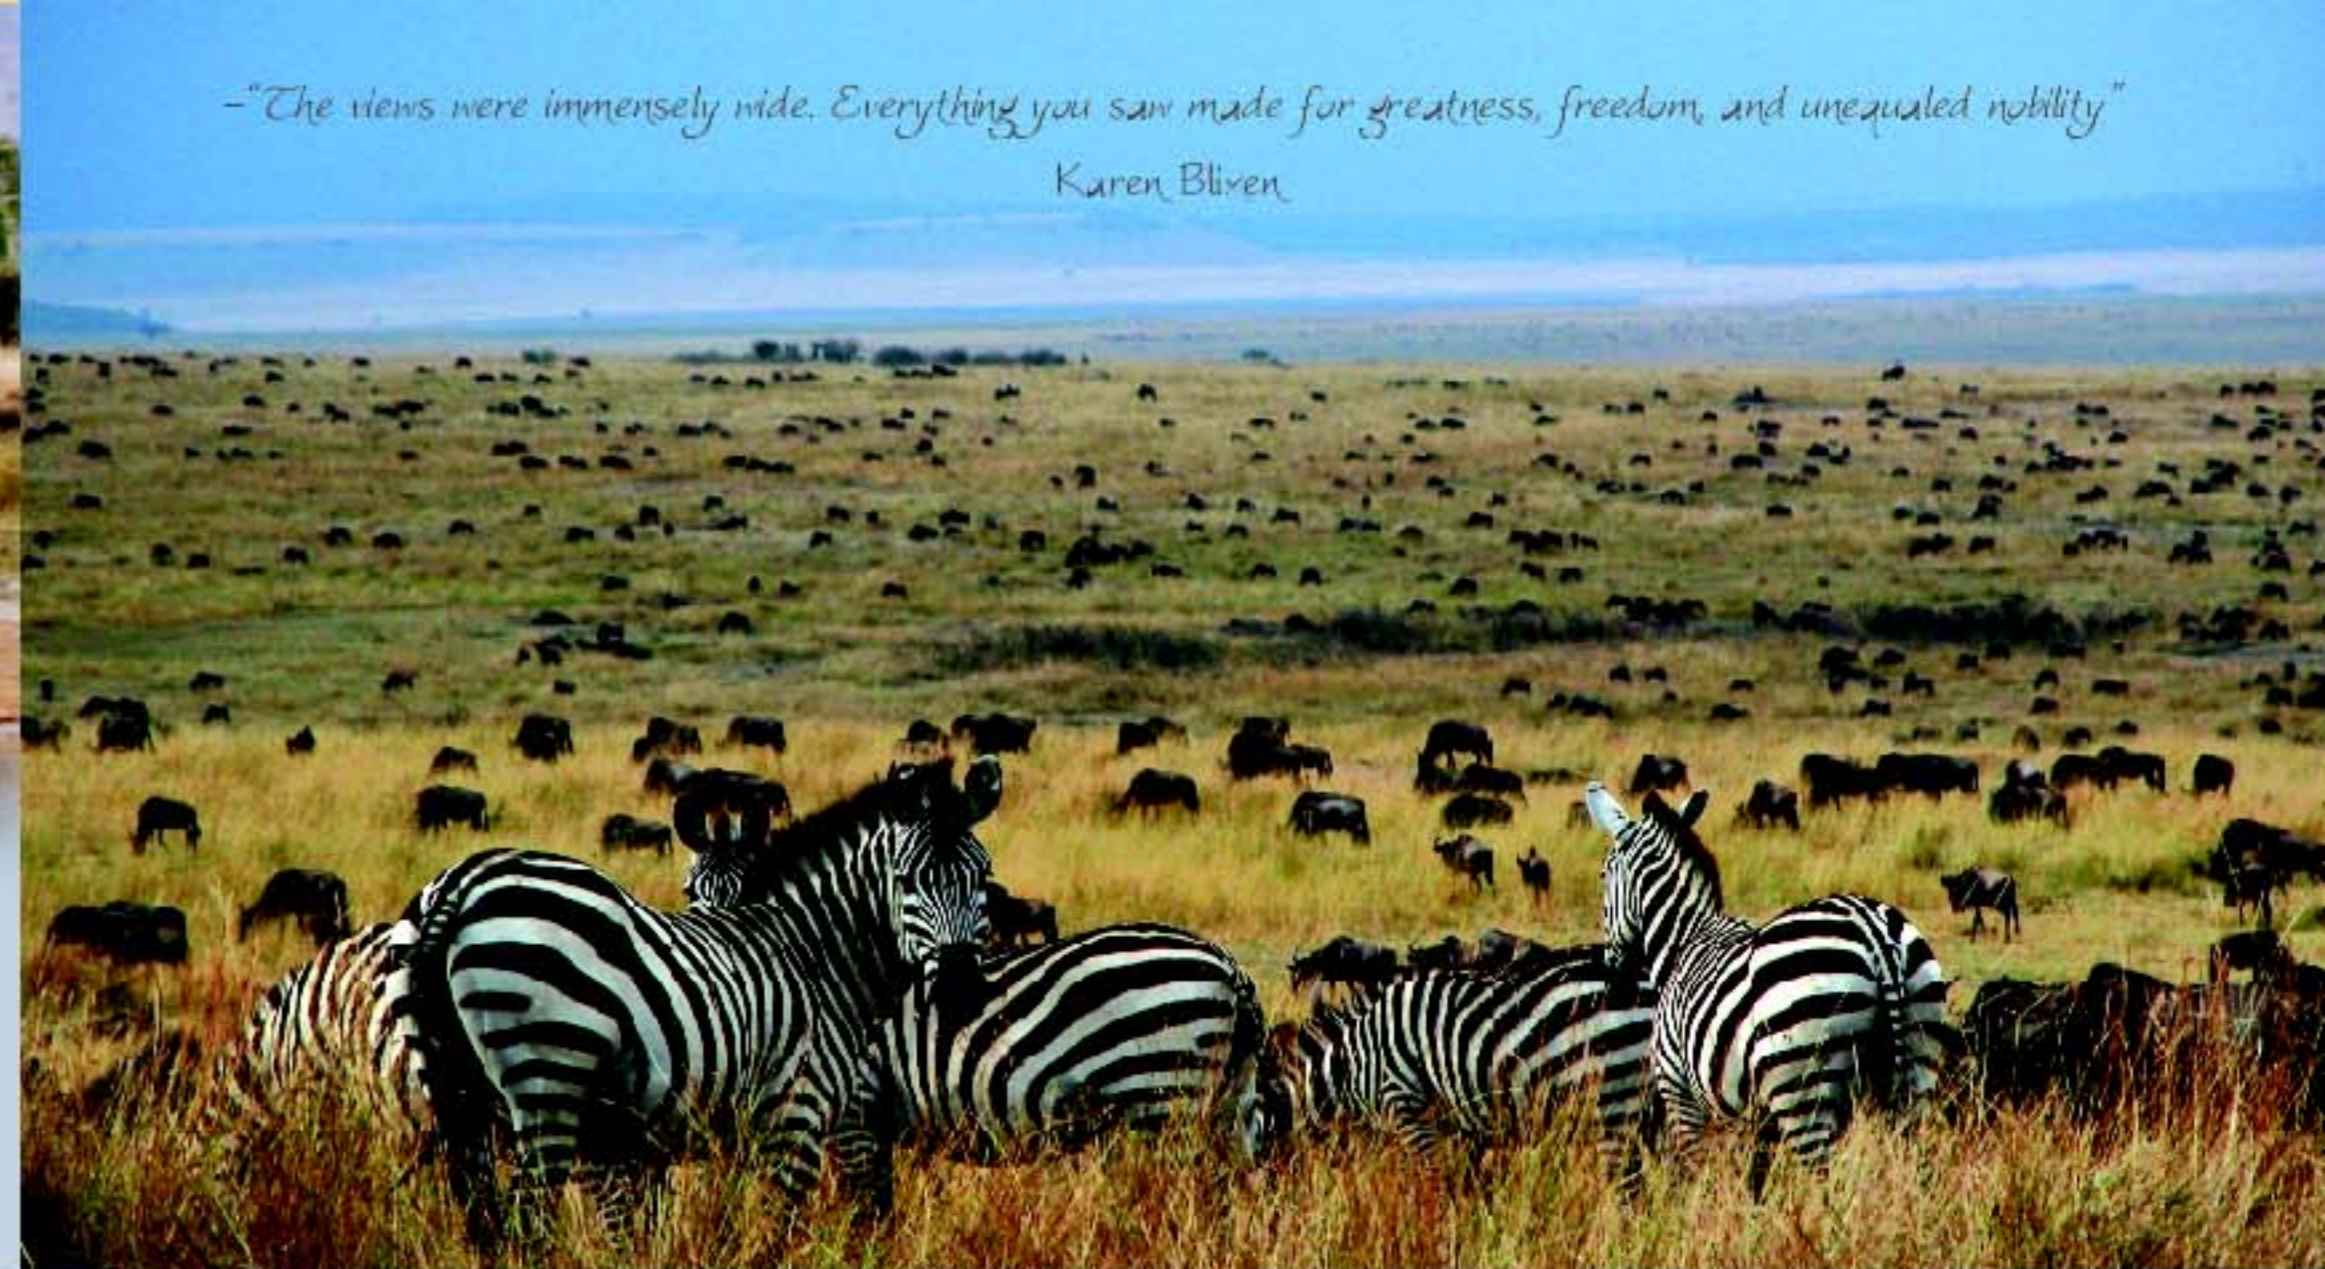

"I was so happy, I nearly caught the sky with laughing & crying"
Munyamadzi

- Ngare Serian, "The River Camp". Four tented suites set on rich hardwood decks.
- Its intimate and select character proves suitable for the camp to be taken on an exclusive basis, for family gatherings or with close friends.
- Set alongside the burbling river deep in the shade of the African green heart.
- Located on the exclusive and private 7,000 acre Pusinkariak Conservancy.
